

Instructions:

Cut out both arrows and the clock. (If you need help using scissors ask your parents!). Cut out the black circle in the middle of the clock (or just punch it out with a pencil). Insert both arrows into the hole and fold the red part underneath the clock and keeping the black part of the arrow on the top of the clock. This will allow you to rotate the arrows and practice your intervals!